

Piotr Piłat

Piotr Piłat holds a degree from the Warsaw School of Economics.

He joined the Ministry of Finance's Financial Institutions Division in 2002. He is now Director of the Financial Market Development Department. He leads the Ministry's efforts in the implementation of regulations governing the Polish financial market: the banking and insurance sectors, the capital market and the payment systems. He is also responsible for EU co-operation in the financial markets.

He is former Member of the Supervisory Board of the Polish Security Printing Works (PWPW) and the Central Securities Depository of Poland (KDPW) and former Member of the Polish Banking Supervision Commission (KNB) and later the Polish Financial Supervision Authority (KNF). He is a Member of the Supervisory Board of the Bank Guarantee Fund (BFG) and a Member of the Financial Services Committee.