The manner of participation in the Extraordinary General Meeting and exercising the voting rights

A shareholder who is a natural person may participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting and vote in person or by proxy. A shareholder who is not a natural person may participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting and vote by a person authorized to make declarations of intent on its behalf or by proxy. The power of attorney to participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting and to vote should be executed in writing or granted in an electronic format. An attorney-in-fact may grant further powers, if it is provided in the power of attorney. An attorney-in-fact may represent more than one shareholder and vote differently from the shares of each shareholder. Shareholder in a listed company holding shares registered on more than one securities account may appoint separate attorneys-in-fact to exercise the rights from the shares registered on each account.

The power of attorney granted in an electronic format does not require a secured electronic signature verified with a valid qualified certificate. The Company should be notified of any power of attorney granted in an electronic format by electronic mail at the following address: akcjonariusze@cyfrowypolsat.pl. The information on granting the power of attorney should include the particulars of the attorney-in-fact (proxy holder) and the grantor (including their full names (business name), place of residence (registered office)) and specify the number of shares and votes for which the right to vote will be executed. Any consequence resulting from an improper manner of granting the power of attorney shall be borne by the grantor.

The Company may take appropriate actions to identify the shareholder and attorney-in-fact in order to verify the validity of the power of attorney granted in an electronic format. The Company may, in particular, ask the shareholder, via an e-mail, to confirm the fact that the power of attorney has actually been granted.

In order to identify the shareholder granting the power of attorney, the notice on granting the power of attorney in an electronic format should include the following (as an appendix):

- (i) if the shareholder is a natural person: a copy of an ID card, passport or any other official identity document of such shareholder; or
- (ii) if the shareholder is not a natural person: an excerpt from an appropriate register or other document confirming that a given natural person(s) is (are) authorized to represent the shareholder at the Extraordinary General Meeting (e.g. uninterrupted series of powers of attorney).

If there are any doubts as to the authenticity of the aforementioned documents, the Management Board of the Company reserves the right to request the attorney-in-fact (proxy) to present the following documents when the attendance list is being drawn up:

- (i) if the shareholder is a natural person: a copy of an original ID card, passport, or any other official identity document of the shareholder certified to be a true copy of the original document by a notary or any other entity authorized to do so; or
- (i) if the shareholder is not a natural person: an original or copy of the document certified by a notary or some other entity authorized to certify that an excerpt from an appropriate register or other document confirming that a given natural person(s) is (are) authorized to represent the shareholder at the Extraordinary General Meeting (e.g. uninterrupted series of powers of attorney) are true copies of the original document.

For the identification purpose of the attorney-in-fact (proxy), the Management Board of the Company reserves the right to request the attorney-in-fact to present the following when the attendance list is being drawn up:

- (i) if the attorney-in-fact is a natural person: an ID card, passport, or any other official identity document of the attorney-in-fact; or
- (ii) if the attorney-in-fact is not a natural person: an original or copy of the document certified by a notary or some other entity authorized to certify that an excerpt from an appropriate register or other document confirming that a given natural person(s) is (are) authorized to represent the shareholder at the Extraordinary General Meeting (e.g. uninterrupted series of powers of attorney) are true copies of the original document and an ID card, passport, or any other official identity document of the natural person(s) authorized to represent the attorney-in-fact at the Extraordinary General Meeting.

Any documents, abovementioned, prepared in a foreign language must be accompanied by appropriate certified translation into Polish made by a sworn translator.

If the power of attorney is a conditional one a proof may be claimed that the condition has been met.

The right to represent the shareholder who is not a natural person should arise from a current excerpt from the relevant register presented when the attendance list is being drawn up, possibly from an uninterrupted series of powers of attorney, and the person(s) granting the power of attorney on behalf of the shareholder who is not a natural person should be enumerated in the said excerpt.

Forms referred to in Article 402³ § 1 Section 5 of the CCC, under which the voting right may be exercised by proxy are available on the Company's website at www.cyfrowypolsat.pl, subpage Investors' Center, tab General Shareholders Meeting. The shareholder is not obliged to grant a power of attorney using the form made available by the Company.

In addition, the Management Board notifies you that if the power of attorney is granted together with a voting instruction, the Company will not verify whether or not attorneys-in-fact exercise their voting rights in accordance with the instructions received from the shareholders. Therefore, the Management Board informs you that any voting instruction should only be given to the attorney-in-fact alone.

A member of the Company's Management Board and employee of the Company may act as attorneys-in-fact at the Extraordinary General Meeting. If a member of the Company's Management Board or Supervisory Board, liquidator, employee or a member of the corporate bodies or employee of a subsidiary of Cyfrowy Polsat acts as an attorney-in-fact at the Extraordinary General Meeting, then the power of attorney may entitle such person to represent the shareholder at only one general meeting. The attorney-in-fact is obliged to disclose to the shareholder any circumstances indicating that any conflict of interest exists or may occur. Granting further powers of attorney by the attorney-in-fact referred to herein is excluded.

The regulations of the Company's General Meeting do not provide for a possibility to vote by mail or through the use of electronic means of communication.

The Company does not anticipate that the shareholders may participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting through the use of electronic means of communications.

The Company's Articles of Association do not provide for a possibility to voice one's opinion during the Extraordinary General Meeting through the use of electronic means of communications.
