Shareholder's right to submit draft resolutions regarding matters introduced to the agenda during the General Meeting

During the General Meeting, each shareholder may submit draft resolutions regarding matters introduced to the agenda.

The manner of exercising the right to vote by attorney

A shareholder who is an individual may attend the Ordinary General Meeting and exercise the right to vote in person or by attorney. A shareholder who is not an individual may attend the Ordinary General Meeting and exercise the right to vote through a person authorized to make statements of will on its behalf or by attorney. A power of attorney should be granted in writing or in an electronic form.

If the shareholder granted the power of attorney in writing, the attorney should, when preparing the attendance list, present the copy of a power of attorney including documents which confirm the authorization to represent the shareholder (while showing the original documents at the same time), and present the attorney's ID document. Shareholders notify the Company about granting a power of attorney by sending a power of attorney document signed by persons authorized to represent the shareholder (the shareholder himself/herself) including other documents specified below, which confirm the right to represent the shareholder, to wza@phnsa.pl.

A power of attorney granted electronically does not require a safe electronic signature verified through a valid qualified certificate. A power of attorney template is available at the Company's website at www.phnsa.pl, under the Investor Relations (General Meetings) tab.

The information on granting the power of attorney should include accurate data of the attorney and principal (name, address, phone number and e-mail address of both persons). It should also include the scope of power of attorney, i.e. indicate the number of shares under which the right to vote will be exercised, and the date and name of the general meeting at which the rights will be exercised.

The Company may take relevant measures in order to identify the shareholder and attorney to verify the validity of a power of attorney granted electronically. Such verification may consist, without limitation, in asking the shareholder or attorney a question by phone or e-mail in order to confirm the fact of granting the power of attorney and its scope. The Company makes a reservation that in such case, a failure to answer questions asked during verification shall be considered as lack of possibility to verify the fact of granting the power of attorney, and shall serve as a basis for denying the attorney attendance at the Ordinary General Meeting.

In order to prove the information included in the notification, one should attach the scan of personal certificate of the shareholder's entitlement to attend the General Meeting, issued by the entity which maintains the securities account. For the purposes of identifying the shareholder who grants the power of attorney, the notification of granting the power of attorney in an electronic form should have the following attachments:

- a) in the case of shareholder who is an individual – copy of ID, passport or other official ID document of the shareholder; or
- b) in the case of shareholder who is not an individual – copy of extract from the relevant register, or another document confirming the individual's/individuals' authorization to represent the shareholder at the General Meeting.

In the case of doubts related to the validity of copies of the above-specified documents, the Company reserves the right to request the attorney to present the following documents when preparing the attendance list:

- a) in the case of shareholder who is an individual – a copy of the ID, passport or other official ID document of the shareholder, certified as true to the original by a notary or other entity authorized to certify documents as true to the original; or
- b) in the case of shareholder who is not an individual – an original or copy certified as true to the original by a notary or other entity authorized to certify documents as true to the original, of the extract from the relevant register or another document confirming the individual's/individuals' authorization to represent the shareholder at the General Meeting.

For the purpose of identifying the attorney, the Company reserves the right to request the following documents from the attorney when preparing the attendance list:

- a) in the case of attorney who is an individual – copy of ID, passport or other official ID document of the attorney; or
- b) in the case of attorney who is not an individual – an original or copy certified as true to the original by a notary or other entity authorized to certify documents as true to the original, of the extract from the relevant register or another document confirming the individual's/individuals' authorization to represent the shareholder at the General Meeting.

Notification about granting or revoking the power of attorney in the electronic form must be made not later than 24 hours before the General Meeting due to the need to perform verification. Members of the Company's Management Board and Company's employees may serve as shareholders' attorneys at the General Meeting. If the function of attorney at the General Meeting is exercised by a Member of the Management Board, Member of the Supervisory Board, liquidator, the Company's employee or member of the governing bodies or employee of the Company's subsidiary company or cooperative, the power of attorney may authorize its holder to representation only on the single specified General Meeting. The attorney shall reveal to the shareholder any circumstances which point to the actual or potential conflict of interest, and shall vote according to the shareholder's instructions. The attorney may not grant further powers of attorney.

The form specified in Article 402³.1.5 of the Commercial Companies Code, enabling exercising the right to vote through an attorney, is available at the Company's website at www.phnsa.pl, under the Investors Relations (General Meetings) tab.

Using this form is not obligatory. The Company also informs that if a shareholder grants a power of attorney including a voting instruction, the Company will not check if the attorney votes in accordance with the received instructions. Therefore, the voting instruction should be provided only to the respective attorney. If votes at the General Meeting are counted with the use of electronic counting devices, the form enabling exercising the right to vote by an attorney serves only as the attorney's instruction.

Information about alternative forms of attending the General Meeting and exercising the right to vote

The Company does not provide for the possibility of attending the General Meeting with the use of electronic communication means and expressing opinions and exercising the right to vote by letter or with the use of electronic communication means.
