

Bogdan Klimaszewski

Graduate of the University of Gdańsk and the National School of Public Administration.

He has worked in the Treasury securities market for 17 years on staff of the Public Debt Department of the Ministry of Finance. Since 2006, Deputy Director of the Public Debt Department. Currently responsible for contacts with investors, debt issues on the domestic and foreign markets, and the Treasury Securities Dealer system. He was previously responsible for the development and implementation of the debt development strategy, risk management of the Treasury debt, and liquidity management of the public budget. In 1996-1998 with the Municipal Office Warszawa Centrum (responsible for contacts with investors) and the Supreme Chamber of Control (control of privatisation projects).

Currently he sits on the Supervisory Board of Bank Gospodarstwa Krajowego (since 2007). Previously, Member of the Supervisory Boards of: Lubelski Rynek Hurtowy SA (2007) and BondSpot SA (2013-2015).