

Malgorzata Zaleska

Education:

1993 - master degree (Warsaw School of Economics , Department of Finance and Statistics)

1996 - completion of the Postgraduate Studies in Administration (University of Warsaw, Faculty of Law)

1997 - PhD degree in economics

2000 - postdoctoral degree in economic sciences

2004 - the title of professor of economic sciences

Today:

- Director of the Institute of Banking School of Economics
- Chairperson of the Committee of Sciences of the Polish Academy of Sciences Finance
- Member of the NBP Economic Research Committee
- Member of the Central Commission. Degrees in Finance discipline

In scientific achievements and popular science has more than 350 publications .

She was:

- Advisor to the President of the Bank Guarantee Fund (1998-2003)
- Member of the Board of the Stock Exchange (2000-2002)
- Member of the Banking Supervision Commission (2007)
- President of the Bank Guarantee Fund (2007-2009)
- Member of the Board of the International Association of Deposit Insurers (2008-2009)
- Chair of the Study Group European Forum of Deposit Insurers (2008-2009)
- Member of the International Relations Committee at the European Central Bank (2009-2013)
- Member of the Economic and Financial Committee at the Council of the EU (2009-2015)
- Member of the Management Board of the Polish National Bank (2009-2015) , including supervision of the Foreign Department , Department of Strategic Management and the Department of Communication and Promotion
- Plenipotentiary of the NBP Management for the introduction of the euro in Poland (2013-2015)
- Chairperson of the Committee for Economic Studies National Bank of Poland (2014-2015)