

Jarosław Dominiak

Jarosław Dominiak graduated of the Faculty of Management and Computer Science at the Wrocław University of Economics. He also graduated of the Postgraduate Management Studies at Warsaw School of Economics and of the Postgraduate SME Finance Management Studies at Wrocław University of Economics.

Jarosław Dominiak is the initiator and the first president of Stowarzyszenie Inwestorów Indywidualnych. Since 2000 he is a scholarship holder and a member of the Ashoka-Innovators for the Public. Since July 2011, a member of the permanent advisory group (Securities and Markets Stakeholder Group) at ESMA-European Securities and Markets Authority in Paris.

Since March 2013, a Management Board Member of EuroFinUse in Brussels. Since 2000, a representative of the national investors' organizations at the World Federation of Investors Corp. Since 2007, a judge in the Stock Exchange Court at the Warsaw Stock Exchange.

A member of many sectoral groups and consultation councils established by the Minister of Finance and Minister of State Treasury (among others Financial Market Development Council, Warsaw Stock Exchange Privatisation Council, Citizen Shareholding Council at the Minister of State Treasury).

A member of supervisory boards of publicly held companies (currently member of the Supervisory Board of DGA SA, and a member of the audit committee of the Supervisory Boards of DGA SA, IMS SA).