2. Right of the shareholder to request that certain matters be included in the agenda of the General Meeting

- 1) A shareholder or shareholders representing at least one twentieth of the share capital may request that certain matters be included in the agenda of the Company's General Meeting. Such request should be submitted to the Company's Management Board no later than twenty-one days before the date of the General Meeting. It should contain a justification or a draft resolution pertaining to the proposed item of the agenda. The request may be submitted in writing at the Company's registered office at ul. Książęca 4, 00-498 Warsaw, or in electronic form sent to the Company's – e-mail address walne.zgromadzenie@gpw.pl.

- 2) The shareholder or shareholders referred to in point 1 should evidence the relevant number of shares held at the date of the request by attaching to their request a deposit certificate (certificates) or a statement issued by an entity keeping a securities account. In addition, the shareholder or shareholders referred to in point 1 who are natural persons should present documents confirming the identity of the shareholder containing data necessary for the identification including the series and number of the ID card/passport and PESEL, and if a request is sent electronically, then a scan of such documents including the details listed above. If a request is submitted by a shareholder or shareholders which is (are) a legal person or organisational unit referred to in Art. 33¹ of the Civil Code, the shareholder or shareholders should present an official copy of the current entity's relevant register (a scanned document in case of a request sent by e-mail). All documents submitted to the Company, including documents sent electronically, should be drawn up in Polish (documents drawn up in a language other than Polish should be translated into Polish by a sworn translator).

Shareholders making a request by means of electronic communication should send all documents in PDF format.

- 3) The Company may take appropriate action to identify the shareholder and the attorney-in-fact to verify the rights exercised by means of electronic communication.

3. Right of the shareholder to submit draft resolutions

- 1) A shareholder or shareholders of the Company representing at least one twentieth of the share capital may, before the date of the General Meeting, submit to the Company in writing at the Company's registered office at ul. Książęca 4, 00-498 Warsaw, or by means of electronic communication to the Company's e-mail address walne.zgromadzenie@gpw.pl, draft resolutions on matters included in the agenda of the General Meeting or matters to be included in the agenda.
- 2) According to the procedure set out in point 2.2 and 2.3 above, such shareholder or shareholders should evidence the relevant number of shares held at the date of the request and attach documents confirming the identity of the person or persons submitting the draft resolutions.
- 3) Any shareholder entitled to participate in the General Meeting may, during the General Meeting, submit draft resolutions on matters introduced to the agenda.

4. The method of exercise of the voting right by an attorney-in-fact

- 1) A shareholder may participate in the General Meeting and exercise the voting right personally or by an attorney-in-fact. A power of attorney to participate in the General Meeting and exercise the voting right must be granted in writing or electronically. A shareholder who is not a natural person may participate in the General Meeting and exercise the voting right via the person entitled to submit declarations of will for and on behalf of such shareholder or via an attorney-in-fact.
- 2) Shareholders of the Company may notify the Company electronically at the e-mail address walne.zgromadzenie@gpw.pl of an electronically granted and revoked power of attorney to participate in the General Meeting and send the document granting or revoking such power of attorney. Given that the sent document must be verified, the notices and powers of attorney must be sent until 11 a.m. on 17 June 2020.

- 3) Together with a notice of the granting of a power of attorney sent electronically, the shareholder shall send the contents of the power of attorney as well as scans of documents containing data necessary for the identification (including the series and number of the ID card/passport and PESEL), confirming the identity of the shareholder as principal and the appointed attorney-in-fact being a natural person acting on behalf of the attorney-in-fact which is a legal person or organisational unit referred to in Art. 33₁ of the Civil Code. If the attorney-in-fact is a legal person or organisational unit referred to in Art. 33₁ of the Civil Code, the shareholder as principal should additionally send a scanned official copy of the attorney-in-fact's relevant register. All documents sent electronically should be drawn up in Polish (documents drawn up in a language other than Polish should be translated into Polish by a sworn translator).

A shareholder who sends a notice of the granting of a power of attorney shall also send to the Company the e-mail address and the telephone number at which the Company may contact the shareholder or the attorney-in-fact. All documents referred to in this paragraph are sent electronically. Nothing in this paragraph shall relieve the attorney-in-fact of the obligation to present its/his/her identification documents referred to in this paragraph during the preparation of the attendance record of shareholders entitled to participate in the General Meeting.

- 4) The above rules of identifying the principal apply accordingly to notifying the Company electronically of the revocation of a power of attorney.
- 5) A notice of granting and revoking of a power of attorney which does not comply with the requirements set out above shall have no legal effect for the Company.
- 6) The Company may take appropriate action to identify the shareholder and the attorney-in-fact to verify the rights exercised by means of electronic communication.
- 7) If a power of attorney is granted in writing, the original document shall be given by the attorney-in-fact to the Company. In addition, during the preparation of the attendance record, the attorney-in-fact of a shareholder (shareholders) shall present an ID card, passport or other reliable document confirming its/his/her identity. The right to represent a shareholder who is not a natural person should arise out of an official copy of the relevant register (original or a copy authenticated by a notary public or a legal counsel) and a string of powers of attorney.
- 8) The Company informs that forms of power of attorney to exercise voting rights containing data required under Art. 402₃ CCC are available on the website <https://www.gpw.pl/general-meeting>. These forms are not mandatory.

5. Possibility and method of participation in the General Meeting by means of electronic communication

- 1) The Company allows the participation in the General Meeting by means of electronic communication. The specific terms and conditions of participation in the General Meeting of the Company by means of electronic communication are set out in the Rules of Participation in the General Meeting of the Warsaw Stock Exchange by Means of Electronic Communication available on the Company's website at <https://www.gpw.pl/regulations>.

Such form of participation in the General Meeting will be available via a link to be posted on the Company's website at <https://www.gpw.pl/general-meeting> no later than 17 June 2020.

- 2) To participate in the General Meeting by means of electronic communication, shareholders should provide the Company, at the email address walne.zgromadzenie@gpw.pl, from the day following the date of publication of this announcement to 16 June 2020 at 4 p.m., with the following:
 - a) a statement completed and signed by the shareholder, scanned in pdf format, to the effect that the shareholder intends to participate in the General Meeting by means of electronic communication ("Statement"), according to the template presented in the appendix to the Rules referred to in point 5.1) above;
 - b) a scan of the identity document to the extent necessary to identify the shareholder, including the series and number of the ID card/passport, PESEL. If the shareholder is a legal entity or an organisational unit without legal personality, it needs to send a scan of the entry in the relevant register or a scan of another document confirming the powers of its representatives. In the case of a power of attorney, the provisions of point 4 of this announcement apply accordingly.
- 3) Following a successful check of the rights of a shareholder and powers of attorney, if any, the Company will provide the shareholder or attorney-in-fact, no later than 17 June 2020 at 4 p.m., from the email address walne.zgromadzenie@gpw.pl at the email address provided by the shareholder in the Statement, with detailed instructions of how to log on the IT platform necessary to participate in the General Meeting by means of electronic communication, together with the login and temporary password necessary to log on the platform for the first time, which constitutes confirmation of eligibility to participate in the General Meeting by means of electronic communication.
- 4) On 19 June 2020 from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m., shareholders may test the functionality of their IT hardware, software and internet connectivity to be used in order to participate in the General Meeting by means of electronic communication, and learn the functionalities of the provided platform. Access to tests will be available via a link published on the website of the Company at <https://www.gpw.pl/general-meeting>.
- 5) In the case of any issue or question concerning the use or operation of the platform, shareholders may use a technology helpdesk available by phone on 19 June 2020 (from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m.) and on 22 June 2020, i.e., the date of the General Meeting, from 9 a.m. until such time that the General Meeting is adjourned, or report them at walne.zgromadzenie@gpw.pl. The phone number shall be provided by the Exchange to the shareholder or attorney-in-fact together with the instructions referred to in point 5.3).
- 6) To participate in the General Meeting by means of electronic communication, the following requirements must be met:

- a) a connection with the public network Internet with a capacity of at least 1 Mbps (capacity throughout the period of using the platform);
- b) a computer with sound playing and image reception functionalities and controlled by the operating system Windows 10 or macOS with an installed browser: Firefox, Chrome or Safari (all listed browsers can be downloaded free of charge from the public network Internet). It is not recommended to use Internet Explorer. Furthermore, the browser must be enabled to support JavaScript (standard browser settings).

An internet connection of lower capacity or an older browser version may interfere with or block communications with the venue of the General Meeting, cause major latency in reception or prevent the casting of votes.

It is recommended that users refrain from using other applications which significantly increase the workload for the computer and the telecommunication connection at the time of using the platform.

- 7) The proceedings of the General Meeting will be broadcast live online in the public network Internet and will be recorded and published on the website <https://www.gpw.pl/general-meeting>.
- 8) The Company announces that the General Meeting will be broadcast with interpretation into English as an interpreter will be available during the General Meeting (Polish – English – Polish).

6. Method of making statements during the General Meeting by means of electronic communication

Information about the method of making statements during the General Meeting by means of electronic communication is presented in the Rules referred to in point 5.1) above.

7. Method of exercising the voting right by mail or by means of electronic communication

The Company currently does not allow the possibility of exercising the voting right by mail.

Information about the method of exercising the voting right by means of electronic communication is presented in the Rules referred to in point 5.1) above.

8. Date of registration of participation in the General Meeting

The date of registration of participation in the General Meeting is 6 June 2020.

9. Information on the right to participate in the General Meeting

Only persons who are shareholders of the Company sixteen days before the date of the General Meeting (i.e., 6 June 2020) have the right to participate in the General Meeting of the Company, i.e.:

- 1) they have shares of the Company deposited in their securities account and not earlier than before announcement of the General Meeting and not later than on 8 June 2020 they request the entity keeping the securities account in which shares of the Company are deposited to issue a name-specific certificate on the right to participate in the General Meeting of the Company; or

- 2) they are entered in the share register of the Company (shareholders who hold registered shares of the Company).

We recommend that shareholders collect an issued certificate on the right to participate and bring it to the General Meeting.

The Company draws up a list of shareholders entitled to participate in the General Meeting on the basis of the share register and a list submitted by the Central Securities Depository of Poland (KDPW) and drawn up on the basis of name-specific certificates on the right to participate in the General Meeting issued by entities keeping securities accounts. The list of shareholders entitled to participate in the General Meeting shall be displayed for viewing at the Company's registered office (Corporate Department, Room 3038) between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. starting from 17 June 2020.

Any shareholder may request the list of shareholders be sent to it/him/her free of charge by electronic mail, specifying the address to which the list should be sent. The relevant request should be signed by the authorised representatives of the shareholder and delivered to the Company in the original counterpart or sent in PDF format to walne.zgromadzenie@gpw.pl.

A shareholder requesting to view or receive the list of shareholders shall confirm its/his/her identity and status as a shareholder of the Company. For this purpose, a shareholder may present to the Company a certificate on the right to participate in the General Meeting or a depository certificate in the original counterpart or sent in PDF format to the address specified above.

Shareholders and attorneys-in-fact who arrive at the General Meeting of the Company shall, on signing the attendance record, present an ID card, passport or other document confirming their identity. The right to represent a shareholder who is not a natural person should arise out of an official copy of the relevant register (original or a copy authenticated by a notary public or a legal counsel) and a string of powers of attorney. The right to represent a shareholder who is a natural person should arise out of a power of attorney presented when signing the attendance record.

Voting cards will be available to persons entitled to participate in the General Meeting in front of the meeting room from 10 a.m. on 22 June 2020.

Attorneys of legal persons shall come to the General Meeting at least one hour before its beginning.

10. The right to nominate candidates for Exchange Supervisory Board members

As the agenda of the General Meeting includes item 16 concerning election of members of the Exchange Supervisory Board for a new term of office, the Exchange Management Board announces that the specific procedure for the election and dismissal of members of the Exchange Supervisory Board is laid down in the Company's Articles of Association whose up-to-date text is available on the Company's website at <https://www.gpw.pl/regulations>.

According to Article 13(4) of the Company's Articles of Association, each shareholder at the same time being an Exchange Member or jointly with other shareholders at the same time being Exchange Members and each of the Minority Shareholders within the meaning of the Company's Articles of Association may nominate any number of candidates to the Exchange Supervisory Board elected by the General Meeting under Article 13(3) of the Company's Articles of Association. A candidate to the Exchange Supervisory Board must be nominated not later than 15 June 2020. The candidates must meet the independence criteria referred to in Article 14(1) of the Company's Articles of Association.

A candidate should be nominated in writing at the Company's registered office at ul. Książęca 4, 00-498 Warsaw, or by means of electronic communication to the Company's e-mail address walne.zgromadzenie@gpw.pl with a message header reading: "Zgłoszenie kandydata na członka Rady Gieldy" [nomination of a candidate for a member of the Exchange Supervisory Board].

A nomination should be accompanied by the candidate's CV and information about the number of shares and the number of votes represented by the shareholder or shareholders nominating the candidate. In addition, the Company must receive a certificate of the right to participate in the General Meeting or a depository certificate, in the original counterpart or in a pdf file sent to the address provided above.

Furthermore, a nomination of a candidate for a member of the Exchange Supervisory Board should be accompanied by the candidate's written declaration of consent to stand for election, a statement of fulfilment of the requirements for members of the supervisory board of a company operating a regulated market with regard to the number of functions held, a statement of fulfilment of the independence criteria set out in the Articles of Association, as well as the candidate's contact details (telephone number, e-mail address).

The Company may take appropriate action to identify the shareholder to verify the rights to nominate a candidate to the Exchange Supervisory Board.

11. Access to documentation

The full text of the documentation to be presented to the General Meeting, including the draft resolutions and information about the General Meeting, will be available on the Company's website <https://www.gpw.pl/general-meeting> from the date of convening the General Meeting.
