

Izabela Flakiewicz is a capital and financial market regulation expert, manager, and lawyer.

She holds a degree from the Department of Law and Administration, University of Warsaw; the Post-graduate Programme in Business Insurance Law, University of Warsaw; and the Executive Master of Business Administration, Apsley Business School – London and the Warsaw Management University.

She was one of the first certified advisers in the Alternative Trading System (28/2012). A financial market professional since 2007. Experienced official of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority (KNF) from 2007 to 2017, including Deputy Director and Director of the Insurance and Pension Licence Department, and Advisor to the Chairperson of the PFSA.

Since 2018, Chief Compliance Officer at Pocztove Towarzystwo Ubezpieczeń Wzajemnych and Pocztove Towarzystwo Ubezpieczeń na Życie SA, which are postal insurers.

Since 2019 to 2021, Member of the Supervisory Board of Izba Rozliczeniowa Giełd Towarowych SA, member of the GPW Group.

She has published texts on financial market regulation.

Member of the AIDA Polish Chapter (Association Internationale de Droit des Assurances).