The Company should be notified of any power of attorney granted in an electronic format by electronic mail at the following address: akcjonariusze@cyfrowypolsat.pl. The Company may take appropriate actions to identify the shareholder and attorney-in-fact in order to verify the validity of the power of attorney granted in an electronic format. The Company may, in particular, ask the shareholder, via e-mail, to confirm the fact that the power of attorney has actually been granted

The information on granting the power of attorney should include the particulars of the attorney-in-fact (proxy holder) and the grantor (including their full names (business name), place of residence (registered office)) and specify the number of shares and votes for which the right to vote will be executed. Any consequence resulting from an improper manner of granting the power of attorney shall be borne by the grantor.

In order to identify the shareholder granting the power of attorney, the notice on granting the power of attorney in an electronic format should include the following (as an appendix):

- (i) if the shareholder is a natural person: a copy of an ID card, passport or any other official identity document of such shareholder; or
- (ii) if the shareholder is not a natural person: an excerpt from an appropriate register or other document confirming that a given natural person(s) is (are) authorized to represent the shareholder at the Annual General Meeting (e.g. uninterrupted series of powers of attorney).

If there are any doubts as to the authenticity of the aforementioned documents, the Management Board of the Company reserves the right to request the attorney-in-fact (proxy) to present the following documents when the attendance list is being drawn up:

- (i) if the shareholder is a natural person: a copy of an original ID card, passport, or any other official identity document of the shareholder certified to be a true copy of the original document by a notary or any other entity authorized to do so; or
- (ii) if the shareholder is not a natural person: an original or copy of the document certified by a notary or some other entity authorized to certify that an excerpt from an appropriate register or other document confirming that a given natural person(s) is (are) authorized to represent the shareholder at the General Meeting (e.g. uninterrupted series of powers of attorney) are true copies of the original document.

For the identification purpose of the attorney-in-fact (proxy), the Management Board of the Company reserves the right to request the attorney-in-fact to present the following when the attendance list is being drawn up:

- (i) if the attorney-in-fact is a natural person: an ID card, passport, or any other official identity document of the attorney-in-fact; or
- (ii) if the attorney-in-fact is not a natural person: an original or copy of the document certified by a notary or some other entity authorized to certify that an excerpt from an appropriate register or other document confirming that a given natural person(s) is (are) authorized to represent the shareholder at the General Meeting (e.g. uninterrupted series of powers of attorney) are true copies of the original document and an ID card, passport, or any other official identity document of the natural person(s) authorized to represent the attorney-in-fact at the General Meeting.

The right to represent the shareholder who is not a natural person should arise from a current excerpt from the relevant register presented when the attendance list is being drawn up, possibly from an uninterrupted series of powers of attorney, and the person(s) granting the power of attorney on behalf of the shareholder who is not a natural person should be enumerated in the said excerpt.
