Acting pursuant to Art. 393.3 of the Commercial Companies Code and Art. 7.7.7 of the Company's Articles of Association, the Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company hereby resolves as follows:

Section 1

- 1. The Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company hereby grants consent to the disposal to a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (the "Acquirer") of a network of self-service parcel terminals, which comprises an organised part of the Company's business (the "OPB") as specified in Section 1.2 hereof, through the in-kind contribution of the OPB to the Acquirer in payment for all new shares in its increased share capital (the "In-Kind Contribution").
- 2. As at the date hereof, the OPB, without limitation, comprises:
 - a) ownership rights, titles, and interests in the property, plant and equipment listed in the Company's register of property, plant and equipment, which the Company uses to operate the OPB;
 - b) ownership rights, titles, and interests in the movable property listed in the Company's equipment register, which the Company uses to operate the OPB;
 - c) ownership rights, titles, and interests in current assets which the Company uses to operate the OPB;
 - d) any intellectual property rights covering any assets related to the operation of the OPB and any other intangible assets, including trade secrets, exclusively related to the OPB;
 - e) receivables and other rights, as well as liabilities arising under agreements related to the operation of the OPB, including, without limitation, under any commercial, rental, lease, and utility agreements, whether entered into with third parties or ORLEN Group companies;
 - f) claims held by the Company against third parties in connection with any assets related to and rights arising from the operation of the OPB, including rights under implied statutory warranties or guarantees;
 - g) other rights and receivables (including trade receivables) associated with the OPB;
 - h) administrative decisions issued by public administration authorities as necessary for the operation of the OPB, to the extent that these decisions are not subject to transferability restrictions arising from specific provisions of administrative law governing the issuance of such decisions or from their content;
 - i) source documents related to the business activities within the OPB, including agreements, contracts, lists, registers, and accounting and accounting records.
- 3. The disposal of the OPB as referred to herein shall be effected at a price equivalent to the OPB's fair value as determined by an independent adviser.
