If the General Meeting decides to appoint a candidate for a position on the Supervisory Board provided that remedial measures are taken, the General Meeting shall approve the manner and the deadline for the completion of remedial measures. Upon completion of remedial measures, the candidate shall present a document to prove that the reservations have been eliminated.

21. In the case of candidates for Supervisory Board Members, the suitability assessment shall be performed before their appointment. Should it be impossible, in exceptional cases, the suitability assessment should be performed without undue delay, not later than within 4 weeks from the moment the person assumes the position.

The General Meeting shall perform an assessment of the collective suitability of the Supervisory Board in the form of a resolution; depending on the results of that assessment, the General Meeting shall decide on the implementation of remedial measures. If the General Meeting decides that remedial measures should be implemented, the General Meeting shall approve the manner and the deadline for the completion of remedial measures.
25. Detailed principles concerning the internal process of the suitability assessment are set out in the regulations of the Bank Management Board and Supervisory Board.

CHAPTER 3. ONBOARDING AND TRAINING

§ 5

General principles of the onboarding process

1. The onboarding and training process for the Supervisory Board Members seeks to ensure individual and collective suitability of the members of the body and satisfaction by them of the requirements of their position, including, but not limited to:

 - 2) inducting them to the role of the body members,
 - 3) ensuring relevant general and as appropriate individually-tailored training programmes.
2. When establishing the resources and funds required to deliver effective policies and procedures for the onboarding and training of the Supervisory Board Members, the Bank should take into account available relevant industry benchmarks, for example relating to the available training budget and training days provided, including benchmarking results provided by the EBA.
3. The Bank Management Board shall ensure performance of duties being development of a detailed training programme, considering the number of meetings devoted to onboarding and training, their costs and related administrative tasks.

2. Where Supervisory Board Members are subject to specific knowledge and skills acquisition requirements, their training and onboarding are to supplement the lack of knowledge or skills in due time, if feasible, before the actual position assumption or immediately upon position assumption otherwise. Those goals should be achieved within 1 year after position assumption at the latest.
3. The Supervisory Board Members are required to satisfy the requirements of significance for the financial services sector, including job description-based education in banking and finance, economics, law, accounting, audit, administration, financial regulations, IT and quantitative methods, for example. The following areas have been identified as particularly requiring training and onboarding:

4. The training programme shall also include raising awareness regarding the benefits of diversity in the governing bodies and at the bank.
 5. Competent business units of the bank shall be engaged as needed in the process of developing training programmes, upon considering that the training programmes should not be limited to the areas of activity for which the individuals are directly responsible
 6. The Supervisory Board Members are required to upgrade and broaden their knowledge and skills needed to perform their duties. Members of management bodies may request training to that effect.

CHAPTER 4. RECALLING SUPERVISORY BOARD MEMBERS, LIMITING THE RISK OF VACANCIES AND FILLING VACANCIES ON THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

§ 7

General principles concerning the recall of a Supervisory Board Member and the procedure for filling vacancies on the Supervisory Board

1. A Supervisory Board Member shall in particular be recalled if the outcome of the re-assessment of the Supervisory Board Member's individual suitability is negative. Except in particularly justified cases, decisions to recall members of the Supervisory Board should not lead to several vacancies in the composition of the Board within a short period of time.
2. Where the Supervisory Board Member is recalled, the shareholders should promptly put forward a new candidate to hold a function on the Supervisory Board, unless the collective suitability assessment of the Supervisory Board shows that the Supervisory Board may operate with a lower number of members, provided that the minimum number of the Supervisory Board members as indicated in §2 Section 3 is met.
3. Except in exceptional situations, impossible to foresee in advance, changes in the composition of the Supervisory Board should be made in such a way as to ensure that the new candidate can be recruited and assessed well in advance.
4. If there is a sudden vacancy on the Supervisory Board, the Remuneration and Nomination Committee shall conduct a collective suitability assessment of the Supervisory Board. Upon reviewing the assessment results, the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson of the Supervisory Board may decide to notify the Management Board of the need to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting in order to fill the vacancy on the Supervisory Board, or to fill the vacancy on the Supervisory Board during the nearest General Meeting.
5. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 4, if – as a result of the expiry of a Supervisory Board Member's mandate – the number of the Supervisory Board Members is lower than five, the Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson of the Supervisory Board shall notify the Bank Management Board of the need to convene the Extraordinary General Meeting immediately to fill the vacancies on the Supervisory Board so that it meets at least the statutory minimum.
6. A Supervisory Board Member should not resign from that function during the term of office if such resignation could have a negative impact on the Supervisory Board's ability to operate, and in particular on the Board's ability to pass resolutions.

7. The resignation of the Supervisory Board Member from the function should be effective as of the future date, adequately remote, enabling the appointment of a new Supervisory Board Member after appropriate application of a suitability assessment.
